

Cherry Security Company Ltd is a limited company registered at Companies House UK.

The fitting of shutters, grilles, steel doors or other such hardware does not guarantee against any attempted or actual unlawful forced entry into a customer's premises and is to be regarded as a visual deterrent Planning.

It is the customer's responsibility to ensure that any local government approvals and or building regulations or English Heritage restrictions are adhered to and or sought. In placing an order it shall be deemed that the customer shall have read understood and agree to be bound by the above.

Cherry Security will not enter into any contract be it written or verbal that commits it to any time critical delivery times and or financial penalty as a result of non or late delivery of products and or services.

Cherry Security reserves the right to cancel a customer's order at any time with and where appropriate the return of any received deposit subject to and minus any reasonable costs incurred by Cherry Security in the execution of that order. Any order placed and not completed within three months of the order date will be cancelled and any monies paid will be nonrefundable, no further notification will be given. (This applies to delays caused by the customer and or the customers agent) Cherry Security may allow a grace period at its own discretion but reserves the right to instigate this condition at any time after the three month period has lapsed.

Products are guaranteed for one year parts and labour, installations should be serviced by ourselves Cherry Security every six months during the guarantee period, failure to service an installation as mentioned will invalidate a guarantee.

Cherry Security is a small company of 2 staff and as a result this may have an impact on emergency cover for products still within the guarantee period during annual leave periods. We shall endeavor to arrange emergency cover that may be limited in scope during leave periods, in the event that we are unable to arrange such cover Cherry Security will undertake to attend site within 15 working days (not including weekends). If the customer chooses to call out another company to rectify any problem during our annual leave periods it shall be at the customer's expense and nonrefundable by Cherry Security. In placing an order it shall be deemed that the customer has read, understood and agreed to be bound by these terms.

All first time customers and sub contract companies will be subject to business on a pro-forma invoice basis where payment for works and or goods shall be made prior to any works or installations commencing. Our general trading policy for end user customers is to take up a deposit which currently is 50% of the total contract cost with the balance payable within 14 days.

Trading Partners, quotes Disclosure.

Our main suppliers are "Paramount 26", "Priory Group", "A1S Group" and "Henry Lewis Ltd" in the event that a potential customer requires a second quote we may at times ask our supplier to also provide a quote which maybe more or less expensive than our quote, quotes may be for identical products or for another suitable product. If an independent second quote is required then the potential customer should seek to make their own arrangements to this end. A second quote by our trading partners should not be considered as being independent. Cherry Security Company also trades under the following names; "Secure Your Premises" "Auto Access Systems" but is not limited to these.

No alteration or amendment of these terms and conditions will be considered unless agreed by ourselves in writing prior to any works, installation or supply of goods is undertaken.

It is the customers responsibility to ensure that any local authority guide lines are complied with. The fitting of shutters, grilles or other security hardware is to be regarded as a visual and physical deterrent and does not guarantee against any attempted or actual unlawful entry or criminal damage. In accepting this quote the customer acknowledges and accepts this condition.
